Dear Mr Wedgwood,

I thank you for your letter of 11th inst.

I shall be very pleased to assist the History of Parliament, by supplying particulars of the late Sir Benjamin Louis Cohen's life. I have some notes, newspaper cuttings, etc, which I have looked up, but before writing further, I will adopt your suggestion and come to your office, ^{will try to do} a work or so

I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Sir Herbert Cohen

Sir Benjamin Louis Cohen, Bt.

Dear Mr. Wedgwood,

I fear I have left your letter on the History of Parliament rather long unanswered. I return the notes which you gave me when I called at your office, and also some further notes which you may like to incorporate with yours. I shall be very pleased to do anything further I can, either by revising drafts or otherwise.

I enclose copies of Sir B. L. Cohen's Election addresses which you asked for; I should much like them back, if you do not want to preserve the originals anywhere, as I have no other copies.

I also enclose some notes on, Lionel Cohen, Sir George Fardell, and Sir Robert Fowler, in case they should be of use.

I remember Lionel Cohen and Sir George Fardell, but only heard my father talk about Sir Robert Fowler.

I remain,

Yours sincerely,
